A full line-up of bluegrass bands will draw music fans of all ages to the East Troy Village Square during the 19th annual East Troy Bluegrass Festival.

East Troy Bluegrass Festival returns Sept. 8-9

The sounds of bluegrass music and the fans who love it will fill East Troy's historic village square for the 19th annual East Troy Bluegrass Festival on Sept. 8-9. A full line-up of bluegrass bands and contests, plus lots of great food and East Troy Marketplace vendors, will take place from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. each day.

The event opens on Saturday with an open stage at 10 a.m., followed by the fiddle contest at 11:30 a.m. The bands start in the afternoon, with Spring City Grass at 1 p.m., Truman's Ridge at 2 p.m., Band Scramble at 3 p.m., Freshwater at 4 p.m. and the national headliner The Karl Shiflett & Big Country Show at 5 p.m.

Best known for their highly entertaining retro stage show, The Karl Shiflett & Big Country Show have captured the irrepressible bounce and down-home, audience-pleasing, good naturedness of classic country and bluegrass acts of the 1940s and 1950s. Hailing from Texas, they have managed to insert their own unique perspective, cultivating a sound that has brought them acclaim as one of the most identifiable and recognizable names in bluegrass music.

The music resumes on Sunday with a gospel service featuring the Burie Family at 10 a.m. followed by the banjo, mandolin and guitar contests at 11:30 a.m. The bands return in the afternoon with KR Bluegrass Band at 1 p.m., Daylight in the Swamp at 2 p.m., Bluegrass Kids at 3 p.m., Brew City Drifters at 4 p.m. and national headliner Nothin' Fancy at 5 p.m.

From the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia comes one of the most entertaining bands in the bluegrass genre, Nothin' Fancy.

The group won the Society for the Preservation of Bluegrass Music of America's award for Entertaining Group of the Year three years in a row. The band formed in 1994 to compete in the East Coast Bluegrass Championship in Crimora, Va. After winning its auspicious debut, the group has grown in popularity. According to Bluegrass Now magazine, the band has "a unique sound that vacillates between smooth, progressive bluegrass and country-tinged Americana."

Weekend wristbands will be sold for $5 per person to help defray the festival costs; children 15 and younger will be admitted free. Attendees should bring their own lawn chairs. No alcohol is allowed at this family event.

The rain location is East Troy Middle School, 3143 Graydon Ave. Check www.easttroybluegrass.com for updates.

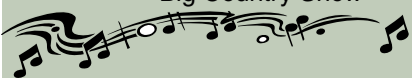

For more information or to request a festival program flier, contact the East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce at (262) 642-3770 or visit www.easttroywi.org.

Bluegrass Kids Boot Camp

Hey kids! Want to learn a couple bluegrass tunes or a little improvisation? Play guitar, mandolin, fiddle, banjo or sing? Melissa Sherman, founder of the East Troy Bluegrass Festival, and Lisa Creason of CreasonStudios will conduct a boot camp for kids of all ages on Sunday, Sept. 9. On-site registration begins at 9 a.m.; Session 1 10-11:30 a.m.; Session 2 1-2:45 p.m.; Performance at 3 p.m. (not required). For details and music, visit www.creasonstudios.com.

CHAMBER PRESIDENT

There's a great vibe on the Square

Did you get the chance to spend some time on the Square this summer? If you didn't, you missed some great events! But don't worry, we're not done yet.

It all started with the Chamber's Memorial Weekend Corn & Brat Roast, which flowed into the Farmers Market and Thursday Nights on the Square concerts and continued with the Woman's Club Arts & Crafts Fair, East Troy Cycling Classic, Lions Club 4th of July parade and the Knights of Columbus Corn & Brat Roast.

Common to all these great events are the donations of time, talent and treasure that make them all possible for the good of the entire community.

Businesses donate their goods and services, discount their products, loan their equipment, allocate the time of their employees and directly contribute funds. Individuals give freely of their time to cook food, sell tickets, pick up garbage and share their musical talents.

The fundraisers complete the cycle by pouring the proceeds back into the community in the form of scholarships, community service projects, facilities contributions, as well as operational costs.

Other beneficiaries include those who attend the events; who have the opportunity to socialize in a relaxing outdoor setting, enjoy live music, view unique artwork, cheer on professional cyclists, purchase food grown locally and celebrate the contributions of our local veterans.

Thanks to the forethought of the village founders, the Square provides the perfect place to hold our events. It has open access from eight directions, seating, shade, ambiance, restroom facilities, things to look at, well-maintained grounds, welcoming environment and flexibility for a large variety of activities.

There's a great vibe on the Square that perfectly sets the scene for whatever takes place there. And that contagious energy seems to be making its way around the business side of the square as well.

This year we've welcomed several new businesses to the Square and will attentively watch the renovation of the big white building on the northwest corner this fall.

So don't miss out on the rest of the 2012 events and plan for 2013 by checking out the calendar of events on the Chamber website (www.easttroywi.org).

Chamber thanks East Troy Cycling Classic contributors

Members of the East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce's Bike Race Committee are very grateful to the sponsors, volunteers and community businesses and residents for the success of the first East Troy Cycling Classic on Friday, June 22.

The committee was co-chaired by Jane Thompson of the Red Door Café and Linda Kaplan of East Troy Shell. Committee members included: Lori Szolwinski of First Citizens State Bank – East Troy Office, Ann Zess of Allan Integrated Control Systems, Inc. and Tony LaShay of Excel Engineering.

The Dennis and Janice Klumb Family Foundation graciously served as title sponsor for the event, which was the second leg of the 11-day Tour of America's Dairyland, June 21 – July 1. The family's contribution paid for half of the bid fees required to bring the race to their hometown. Dennis Klumb Jr. also played a significant role by introducing the event to the Chamber and securing additional sponsorships from his company, KS Energy Services, LLC.

The Dave Strand Family, another local family with strong community ties, stepped up with a substantial contribution to help make the event possible.

Other sponsors responsible for the event's success, listed alphabetically, include: ACC Publishing, LLC Al Smith's Saloon Allan Integrated Control Systems, Inc. American Family Insurance, Dave Scurek Agency Anich's Liquor Arbonne International Associated Bank Benefit Concepts, Inc. CenturyLink

The committee is also grateful to the individual contributions of the following people: Alan Boyes from the Village of East Troy Police Department, Mike Miller from the Village of East Troy Department of Public Works, Mary Jensen from Sideview Plaza, DeAnne Conrad from Citizens Bank of Mukwonago, Tina Keckhaver from Little Angels Learning Center, Nina Stefaniak from Bright Beginnings Day Care, Kathy Zwirgzdas from the East Troy Community School District, Larry Price from the Walworth County Department of Public Works, Mike Redel from the Town of Troy, Rev. Carrie Kreps Wegenast from St. James United Methodist Church, Brent Flikkema from John's Disposal Service and Lori Puls from East Troy High School and members of the National Art Honor Society (Mikel Duval, Rachel Yahr and Rose Tharp), as well as the volunteers who helped marshal the course during the race (Mary Hudec, Monica and Maggie Zoellner, Neil Marini, Adam Schrieber, Robin Posekany, John Graf, Jody Garber, Lori and Glenn Gungel).

Thanks to all the community business owners, employees and residents for their patience in tolerating the extra people in town, the detours around the central part of the village and for some, lack of vehicular access to their place of residence or employment, as well as the other inconveniences they encountered that day.

Thanks to a commitment from the Dennis and Janice Klumb Family Foundation, plans are already underway for next year.

East Troy Farmers Market vendors (from right) Thomas Cicero from Hometown Sausage Kitchen, Mary Rohrer from Rohrganics, Shawn Murray from Michael Fields Agricultural Institute and Troy Strand from The Grist Mill presented donations to the East Troy Community Band representative Rodger Trader in recognition and appreciation for the cooperation by the band during its Thursday Nights on the Square concert series. The East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce, which organizes the market, matched the vendors' combined donation, making a total contribution to the band of $477. Patrons of the band, as well as the band members themselves, supported the Farmers Market vendors prior to the weekly concerts during June and July. The market continues on Thursdays from 4-7 p.m. through Sept. 27, featuring fresh produce, meat, bakery and prepared food from local vendors, plus the Kids Zone sponsored by Bright Beginnings Day Care and the East Troy Family Community Resource Center, along with music and special events every week. New team members, programs at Wisconsin Spinal Rehabilitation Centers - East Troy

Wisconsin Spinal Rehabilitation Centers - East Troy has announced that Gina Peter, CA/CMT and Melinda Strelak, CMT have joined its team in multiple roles.

The center's newest employees bring the clinic experience to a new level. Massage and chiropractic have always gone hand-in-hand getting wonderful results. Adjustments can be slightly uncomfortable for a chronically stressed spine. Massage will assist in reducing muscle tightness as well condition the patients' tendons and ligaments so the adjustment will hold longer.

Peter is a certified chiropractic assistant and has front desk duties also. She has a wonderful way with patients, giving them attention and care they deserve. She brings a young attitude filled with excitement and a genuine concern for patients' health.

Strelak is the center's practice representative. She is out in the community creating more awareness of spinal-health benefits and the services provided at Wisconsin Spinal Rehabilitation Centers. She is very energetic and has a passion for health and wellness.

The center offers free on-site business wellness talks - "How to Stay Young for the Next 100 Years" and "Postural Analysis" for all employees.

ChiroNut is its newest program offered to the workplace as on-site chiropractic wellness care at no cost to the employer. Chiropractic care reduces workplace fatigue, repetitive injuries, elevates employee morale and production, while cutting medical costs for both the employer and the employee. The ChiroNut program shows that a company cares about the health of its employees. For more information call Wisconsin Spinal Rehabilitation Centers, (262) 642-4100.

Historical Society plans Ghost Walk 2012

The East Troy Area Historical Society will present Ghost Walk 2012 on Saturday, Oct. 27, beginning at 6 p.m. at the Kubicki Museum and Heritage Center, 2106 Church St., East Troy.

The event will take brave souls on a walking tour of sites near and around the village square believed to house resident ghosts.

The cost of the tour is $5 for adults and $2 for children under 12 accompanied by an adult. In addition, scary movies will be shown in the museum theatre from 6-9 p.m.

For more information, call the museum at (262) 642-2642.

Burger King names new manager

Christine Mulock joined Burger King as manager in May, heading up a team of 20 employees in East Troy at 2951 E. Main St. She previously worked in customer service at a salon in Brookfield and recently moved to East Troy. She has also worked as a manager at KFC and Arby's.

She said customers should look for a new chicken sandwich lineup coming soon.

For more information, call (262) 642-2951.

Old World introduces 'Life on the Farm'

"Life on the Farm" is an exciting and new kind of hands-on experience at Old World Wisconsin, located at W372 S9727 State Highway 67 in Eagle.

For the 2012 season, the German Area's Koepsell Farm will let visitors discover what life was really like working and living on a late 19th-century farm in the Upper Midwest.

Visitors will follow the daily adventures of the Kruegers, a farm family of the 1880s who left the Old World to build a new life in Wisconsin.

The Kruegers documented their lives through photographs and family stories across the second half of the 19th century and first half of the 20th. "Life on the Farm" is based on this unique record not only of who the Kruegers were, but also of how they sought to be remembered.

Costumed interpreters throughout the farmstead will help visitors step back to the 1880s and imagine the type of life that the Kruegers would have known.

They will guide visitors through the Kruegers' typical chores, teach them about their farm animals, and demonstrate how they used authentic farm implements.

For more information, call (262) 594-6301 or visit oldworldwisconsin.wisconsin-history.org.

McPhail receives business banking certification
 Brooke McPhail, branch manager for Citizens Bank in East Troy, has received the company's prestigious "Business Banking Certificate."
 The certificate, which takes up to a year to earn, requires successful completion of a series of educational classes combined with hands-on training while working with business owners.

Brooke McPhail

"The certificate means Brooke is uniquely qualified to work with business owners," said Russ Bulthaus, Citizens Bank Vice President, Commercial Banking Team Leader. "Business Banking is a very specialized area, yet many financial institutions deal with business owners the way they deal with their largest corporate customers. We believe it's important to understand the specific needs of business owners and provide the service and products geared to their circumstances. That's why we developed this comprehensive certificate process."
 To receive her certificate, McPhail underwent training in a variety of financial areas focused on small business, including: cash flow, financial statements / business, entities, business deposit / loan products, tools/resources to help business owners and how to determine business owner's needs

 "The training is very detailed and provides great insight on understanding the needs of small business," said McPhail. "It has provided me with great information to better provide small business owners with the guidance they need and want from a banking institution."
 To maintain her certificate, McPhail will continue to receive specialized coaching, attend an annual "Talking Business" Business Banking training session and pass additional tests.
Knutson Bros. II ready to 'Rock' fourth fashion show

 Everyone is welcome to The Elegant Farmer festival activities including hayrides, pony rides, train rides, make your own caramel apples, warm cider donuts, hot cider, chili, BBQ pulled pork sandwiches and pickin' in the pumpkin patch.
 Throughout the festival there will be a wide variety of apples to select from in bins both in the orchard and in the farmer's market.
 Due to the unseasonable spring weather, apple picking in the orchard's trees is limited.

All other activities including pumpkin picking, hayrides, foods and more are available each weekend throughout the festival.
 "We are delighted to host our annual Autumn Harvest Festival," says The Elegant Farmer orchard manager and co-owner, Mike Bauer. "Lots of folks come back year after year and some visit for the first time and discover this family-fun tradition. We welcome them all."

 The Elegant Farmer, Highways ES & J, Mukwonago, is open year round 8 a.m.- 6 p.m., excluding holidays.
 For more information, call (262) 363-6770 or visit www.elegantfarmer.com to shop online.

Investing in the future

Chamber treasurer Ann Zess from Allan Integrated Control Systems, Inc. presented Travis Hartwig with a $500 scholarship during East Troy High School's Senior Awards program June 3. Hartwig works at Citizens Bank of Mukwonago and will attend Carroll University this fall. The Chamber's scholarship is awarded to an East Troy graduating senior who is the son, daughter or grandchild of an employee or owner of a current Chamber member business. Employees of current Chamber members' businesses also qualify.

BACK SURGERY?

That's not how WE operate.

If you've been told you need surgery for herniated or degenerated discs or stenosis, but are concerned about the risks, you are a potential candidate for a non-surgical treatment that has worked for thousands of back pain sufferers.

Decompression Therapy, a traction-based procedure, is available at WISCONSIN SPINAL REHABILITATION CENTER – the area's most experienced decompression center.

- No needles, anesthesia or incisions
- Relieves pressure on the lumbar or cervical spine
- Clinically proven/FDA cleared
- Therapy is performed in a comfortable, non-surgical setting

The Karl Shiflett & Big Country Show 5:00 p.m.

Best known for their highly entertaining "Retro" stage show, The Karl Shiflett & Big Country Show has captured, seemingly with ease, the irrepressible bounce and down-home, audience-pleasing, good-naturedness of classic country and bluegrass acts of the 1940s and 1950s. The show gained national recognition in 1999 when it signed with Rebel Records, becoming a household name literally overnight. Its debut release went to the top of the charts and featured its signature song "Where the Smoke Goes Up (And the Money Goes Down)."

Nothin' Fancy 5:00 p.m.

From the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia, Nothin' Fancy is not just carrying on the tradition of bluegrass music, it is contributing to the creation of a new tradition within the acoustic music genre. Winning SPBGMA's award for "Entertaining Group of the Year," three years in a row in 2008, 2009 and 2010, this group originally came together in 1994. It has grown in popularity, released eight full length albums and one CD single. The group's strong vocals, powerful instrumentation, and energetic stage presence, along with its friendly down-to-earth charm keep people coming back for more.
