Summer Guide East Troy 2016

The official manual for fun in the sun

What's playing

See a show at Alpine Valley Music Theatre

Alpine Valley Music Theatre, one of the largest outdoor amphitheatres in the country, gives fans the chance to see star-studded bands while surrounded by its signature hills.

The sprawling outdoor space combined with its parking lot party atmosphere make the concert experience consistently ranked one of the nation's best.

Zac Brown Band will bring its "Black Out the Sun" tour to East Troy on June 25 and 26 with opening act Drake White & the Big Fire.

Dave Matthews Band will be back at the local amphitheater on Friday, July 1 and Saturday, July 2, as part of the DMB Summer Tour.

Farmers Market launches exciting eighth season

The East Troy Farmers Market will launch its exciting eighth season on Friday, May 20 at East Troy Village Square Park, 2881 Main St.

The market will continue on Fridays through Oct. 7. New hours of operation are 2 to 6 p.m.

The market will feature vendors selling homegrown and local produce, specialty items, meats, honey, cheese, flowers, crafts and more. The event will also include live music and various activities. For a complete lineup, visit easttroy.org.

Vendors are still being accepted. The regular rental rate is $15 per week or $60 per quarter.

For more information, call (262) 642-3770 or email vanessa@easttroy.org.

First Fridays coming to East Troy

There is now an extra incentive to spend Friday nights in East Troy with the debut of this year's First Fridays events, May-December, 4-7 p.m. in downtown East Troy.

"First Fridays are an exciting way to celebrate everything our town has to offer and reconnect locals with the businesses we have here," said Vanessa Lenz, East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce Executive Director. "Participating business owners will offer specials, coupons, demonstrations, featured menu items and more."

Connect Communities, an East Troy organization that works to drive downtown revitalization, is partnering with the East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce to host the

CRANKY LADY

East Troy, WI 53120
(414) 405-2950
linneaflinnfaithsteppingstones@yahoo.com

Though the name Cranky Lady may be misleading, every unique pair of hand-cranked socks are made with love. They're made with a love for the rich history that surrounds the circular sock knitting machine. The machine is a replica from World War II, and is a reminder of the behind-the-scenes efforts of women and children who made socks to support troops in the war. The same passion that drove these women to care for their troops is carried on by Linnea Flynn, the one and only Cranky Lady.

Cranky Lady

Her socks, made of authentic wool, acrylic, and bamboo, will not only keep your feet warm and happy, but will represent the same socks that protected soldiers from trench foot.

Must-have market items: Hand cranked socks knitted on a machine replicated from 1924 knitting machine from the war. Embellished journals and handmade cards.

HEALEY'S WHOLESOME HAVEN

W1838 St. Peter's Road
East Troy, WI 53120
(262) 642-3677

The Healey family started its business 27 years ago, determined not to use chemicals or pesticides on their 42-acre property.

"This is not a business, truly. It is a mission of love, to provide wholesome products for those who ache for simpler times and healthier food in its natural state (land, rain, sun and hard work)," said owner Sue Healey.

The farm features 25 acres of pastureland, which the Healeys have used to raise beef cattle for the past 10 years. Their gardens are now mostly strawberries and sugar snap peas.

"Our motto is to raise things in their natural order. A way that we believe God intended for man to live, simply and wholesomely, thus our LLC: Healey's Wholesome Haven," she explained.

Must-have market items: Grassfed beef (beef sticks, ground beef, Italian beef, brats, etc.); chemical free seasonal produce and a few baked goods a.m. and 8 p.m. for timed races that range from 40 to 90 minutes.

The race will shut down streets on the course, but local businesses will remain open. Parking will be available in the Chester Byrnes lot, 2031 Division St., and a golf cart shuttle will be available.

Admission is free and spectators may watch the cyclists whiz by once every three minutes from anywhere on the racecourse.

The title sponsor for the East Troy Cycling Classic is the Dennis and Janice Klumb Family Foundation, who contributed half of the bid fees to host the race. The East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce serves as the local host, with funding for the balance of the fees donated by other local and regional sponsors.

The race series, produced by Midwest Cycling Series, LLC, is now in its seventh year.

In 2015, the Tour of America's Dairyland, presented by Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board, hosted roughly 5,000 racers of multiple categories from junior to pro level, from 36 states and 13 countries.

More than $175,000 in cash and prizes was awarded before an estimated crowd of 155,000 cowbell-clanging spectators, who snapped photos of 245 athlete podium presentations.

Kids Fun Races

The Tour de Square Kids Fun Races will give children the chance to compete like the pros as they pedal their two, three or four-wheel bikes fast and furiously toward the finish line.

The first race starts at 6 p.m. All racers must meet at the East Troy Village Municipal Parking Lot, on the corner of Church and Austin streets, by 5:45 p.m.

The first 100 entries will receive goodie bags, courtesy of Kids Race sponsors KS Energy Services and The Elegant Farmer. There is no entry fee, but registration is required.

Medals will be awarded to the top three places in three age categories, tricycles/big wheels (age 4 and younger), training wheels/two wheels (ages 4-7) and two wheels only (ages 8-11). All children must wear helmets.

Entry forms are available at www.easttroy.org or pre-register the day of the race at the Chamber information booth on the east side of East Troy Village Square Park.

Chamber honors best in business

Clockwise from right: Allan Integrated Control Systems has been named 2016 Business of the Year by the East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce.

The award recognizes business growth, community involvement and innovative efforts. Company owners Ann and Ted Zess accepted the award at the Chamber's annual meeting and awards dinner on March 16 at Ivan's Backstage. The East Troy Electric Railroad volunteers, including (from left) John Jonas, Lisa Jonas, Steve Southworth, President Ryan Jonas and Steve Thomas, were recognized as the 2016 Volunteer(s) of the Year. Linda Kaplan of East Troy Shell presents Stevie and Jim Taylor of James R. Taylor & Sons with the 2016 Good Neighbor Award for the company's significant support of the community. East Troy Electric Railroad rides the rails for 109th year

The East Troy Electric Railroad, Wisconsin's last original electric railroad line, is celebrating its 109th year of operation. The railroad's 2016 schedule will include more trains and dinner trains, as well as a longer route that includes a stop at Indianhead Park in Mukwonago. Passengers can pick up the train at either the East Troy Depot, Elegant Farmer or Indian Head Park in Mukwonago with regular weekend service through Nov. 6. Friday trains will run June 10 through Aug. 26.

A variety of antique trolleys and interurban coaches that once whisked passengers from major cities to surrounding towns and nearby summer retreats will be featured during the season. Special event days include Railfan Day on June 25, Chicago Day July 16 and Milwaukee Day Sept. 24.

Fares are $12.50 for adults, $10.50 for seniors and $8 for youth 3-14. Children younger than 2 ride for free.

2016 theme trains include: Burger & Beer Train on June 25, Evening in Rome Train on July 30, Viva La Mexico Train on Aug. 27 and Oktoberfest Train on Oct. 1.

The railroad returns its award-winning dinner train aboard the only interurban electric railroad car in North America. The two-hour excursion offers a gourmet four-course meal and a full cash bar overlooking Phantom Lake on June 18, July 16, Sept. 17, Sept. 24, Oct. 5, Oct. 15 and Oct. 22.

Rail fans will get the opportunity to dine aboard former coaches of the Chicago South Shore & South Bend Railroad with family-friendly pizza train rides on May 14, June 4, July 2, July 9, Aug. 6 and Aug. 20.

Road, Mukwonago, WI

(262) 993-2483

pradosevich@gmail.com

V & K Honey, located in Mukwonago, is always open offering fresh, local, raw honey. The family business was named after owner Paul Radosevich's children and helpers, Viktor and Katerina.

"I began beekeeping after a year of research, [which] started as a desire for better pollination in my home vegetable garden," said Radosevich. "I spent a summer working with an experienced beekeeper, which led to the desire to pursue beekeeping as an income."

Joining the Wisconsin Honey Producers Association and the Milwaukee Waukesha Beekeepers Association furthered his interest in beekeeping. V&K Honey uses no processing and no additives. The honey is harvested from local beehives. V&K Honey also has candles and beeswax for sale and honeybee removal service.

Must-have market items: raw local liquid honey, creamed honey, honey sticks, lip balm, candles, beeswax, cut comb squares

Callope joins First Citizens team

First Citizens State Bank has welcomed a new financial advisor to its financial services program.

Aurelio Callope, an LPL registered financial advisor with over 13 years of experience, joins a team of consultants dedicated to providing an array of financial products and services.

Through First Citizens State Bank's agreement with LPL Financial, customers have access to a variety of financial products and services, including professional money management, retirement planning, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, annuities, IRAs, life insurance, long term care and much more.

"Whether you're planning for your retirement or children's education, we understand the vital importance of tailoring financial products and insurance services to address the needs and wants of our customers," said James Caldwell, President, First Citizens State Bank.

Callope has been serving clients in the investment and financial advising industry since 2002 and in the broader financial services industry for over 27 years. He and his wife, Diana, have been Whitewater residents for over 25 years and raised two sons.
