Chamber honors year's best

Hometown Sausage named Business of the Year

Hometown Sausage Kitchen has been named Business of the Year by the East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Business of the Year Award recognizes business growth, community involvement and innovative efforts in the East Troy area.

Company owners John Hudoc, Elena Bisabarro and Thomas Cicero accepted the award at the Chamber's annual meeting and awards dinner on April 13 at Alpine Valley Resort.

About the winner: Hometown Sausage Kitchen—whose blossoming in recent years has continued to attract attention from Wisconsin farmers, the southern Wisconsin restaurant scene and beyond—is run by professionally trained chefs, Hudoc and Cicero, along with Lynn Lein of Yuppie Hill Poultry and John's wife Elena, who take great pride in their work and the East Troy community.

The business specializes in small batch locally sourced meat processing, but also provides custom product design and private labeling, helping entrepreneurs develop their own range of meat products.

shop in 2011, Hometown Sausage made a push to modernize the business by developing and evolving its wholesale division.

Today, the business is supplying its products to trendy restaurants like Good Kind in Bayview and Braise in Milwaukee. It also expanded into national territory by supplying a stadium in Cleveland and another large East Coast client.

Hometown has also continued work to support the East Troy area.

They do custom work for farmers like LotFotL and supply events like area farmers markets, the East Troy Chamber's Memorial Day Weekend Corn & Brat Roast, East Troy High School concession stand and many others.

In 2016, Hometown Sausage brought an innovative idea for a community-wide project to life by developing an Italian Sausage pasta sauce with community businesses and students.

The fundraising project was a true community effort, using tomatoes from Bower's Produce that East Troy High School FFA students harvested and spices from Michael Fields Agricultural Institute. Contract Comestibles processed and packaged large batches of the sauce and the jars are now sold as a fundraiser benefiting many school groups.
